

Care Coordinator San Francisco Bay Area, California Job Description

About Us

Founded in Colorado in 2005, There With Care's mission is to provide a wide range of meaningful and fundamental services for families and children during the critical phase of a medical crisis. We serve families referred by hospital social workers and build support around them through a community of people and a network of services, who ease their burden of life's day-to-day obligations with compassion and care. Our current program locations are Colorado, Middle Tennessee, and the San Francisco Bay Area.

The Role

The Care Coordinator is responsible for ensuring families are supported throughout their medical crisis in a way that aligns with There With Care's mission and values. To this end the Care Coordinator enlists the help of staff, a volunteer pool, in-kind donors, and service providers within the community. The Care Coordinator is the liaison between the family, There With Care staff and volunteers, and the referring organization.

A Typical Day Might Include

- Processing incoming referrals, contacting a family to introduce There With Care services and discussing how to best support the family.
- Listening to a family with compassion, care, and non-judgment to determine the family's needs during their medical crisis.
- Utilizing our Salesforce database to track family information, services provided, and various reporting.
- Creating care packages for families and ensuring items are available.
- Coordinating with referring partners to ensure a collaborative approach to supporting families.
- Collaborating with other team members and volunteers to provide timely and appropriate care.
- Problem solving to address unique needs or challenges that may arise.
- Matching community support with family needs.

Qualities That Support Success In This Role

- You have a passion for helping children and families. The idea of directly communicating with families in a medical crisis via phone to provide support and care, motivates you.
- You are a good listener. You listen with compassion, care and without judgement to identify thoughtful and meaningful ways of supporting families.
- You have professional, calm, clear and responsive verbal and written communication skills. You have the ability to maintain clear focus and a calm demeanor during a fragile situation and you have good phone etiquette.
- You have excellent time management and organizational skills. You are comfortable juggling multiple projects and multiple people and able to be responsive at any moment to adjust workload and provide care to meet a family's immediate need.
- You see the Solutions. You are good at solving problems with efficiency and thoughtfulness. You are willing to find a solution, adapt, then execute. When you don't have the answers, you aren't hesitant to ask and learn.
